

Meet Our New Youth Services Librarian!

We are pleased to introduce our new Youth Services Librarian! Amy Coleman has an advanced degree in Library Sciences and Information Studies from the University Of South Carolina. She values the difference literacy makes in the futures of young people and brings her passion to your library. We are fortunate to have her as an essential part of our team.

Senior Farmers Market Coupons

If you are 60 or older, you could be eligible for Senior Farmers Market Coupons. You can redeem the coupons for $50 worth of FREE fruits and produce at local participating Farmers Markets. Get more information and a short, one-page application at the library. Organized by AgeOptions, visit our website for the schedule for when reps will be on hand with the applications.

Summer Reading Ice Cream Kickoff!

On Thursday June 26th, our Youth Services team will kick off our summer reading program with and ice cream party! This year's program promises to be the best one yet. It is vital for young people to expand their literacy throughout the year. Summer reading promotes student excellence. Call 708 862-6220 ext 248 to register.

Bid Whist

Join our group every Tuesday in June from 11am to 3pm for exciting games of Bid Whist! Whether you are a beginner or a seasoned player, there is a place for you. These popular tournaments are competitive, friendly and exciting. To register, call our Adult Services team at 708 862-6220 ext 248.

Level Up Science

Join our Youth Services Department for a set of classes dedicated to science! Every Monday in June, young people will explore the natural world through hands on learning about monarch butterflies and bees. The group will also find ways to make Calumet City into an environment where these beneficial insects can thrive.

Closed On Juneteenth

The library will be closed on Thursday June 19th in observance of Juneteenth. This is an important national holiday in celebration and remembrance of the emancipation of enslaved people. We wish you a Happy Juneteenth!
