

Closed March 3rd

The library will be closed on Monday March 3rd in observance of Casimir Pulaski Day. This holiday is celebrated on the first Monday of March to honor the Polish-born American Revolutionary War hero Casimir Pulaski. It's observed in Illinois and some other states with large Polish-American populations.

Book Club

Our Adult Services Department is hosting our Book Club on March 20th. We will be discussing "All Fours" by Miranda July. Her highly acclaimed novel is about a woman's quest for freedom as she begins to grow older. Please call (708) 862-6220 ext 2 to register.

Rocket Like Mae Jemison

On March 11th at 5pm, the Youth Services Department is hosting Rocket Like Mae Jemison in celebration of Women's History Month. This an opportunity for young people to learn about the first African American woman who went to space. Call 708 862-6220 ext 236

Computer Help

Our popular in Person Computer Help class takes place on March 18th and 25th at 1pm. Our tech expert is standing by to help. Get answers to your questions regarding all things computer! This class will help the beginner or current users learn new things. Call 708 862-6220 ext 248 to register.

Sign In For Safety

As a reminder, your safety is of the utmost importance to us. Unfortunately libraries have become controversial arising from disagreements regarding certain book content. Your library is a place for intellectual freedom and we are dedicated to providing a welcoming space. Our sign in system helps our responsibility to you. Please sign in when coming to the library.

Visit Our Website!

